

Lesson 6

The Holy Spirit: Our Special Helper

Introduction:

Long ago, when Jesus was on the Earth, He promised to send us a very special helper. This helper is the Holy Spirit, and He's here to guide us and help us every day.

1. Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit (John 14:26)

One day, Jesus told His friends that He had to leave them. But He promised to send them the Holy Spirit to be with them forever. The Holy Spirit would teach them and remind them of everything Jesus had taught.

2. The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4)

After Jesus went to heaven, His friends gathered together. Suddenly, there was a sound like a mighty wind, and something like flames of fire appeared over their heads. That was the Holy Spirit coming to be with them! They were filled with joy and started speaking in different languages, telling everyone about Jesus.

3. The Holy Spirit Helps Us Pray (Romans 8:26)

Sometimes we don't know what to say when we pray. But that's okay because the Holy Spirit helps us. He talks to God for us, even when we can't find the right words.

4. The Holy Spirit Gives Us Gifts (1 Corinthians 12:4-7)

Just like presents on our birthday, the Holy Spirit gives us special gifts to help others and make the world a better place. Some people have the gift of helping, some have the gift of teaching, and others have different gifts. We all have something special to share!

5. Listen to the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23)

When we listen to the Holy Spirit, He helps us become kind, loving, patient, and good. These are like fruits that grow in our hearts when we follow the Holy Spirit's guidance.

Conclusion:

The Holy Spirit is the Greatest Gift sent by God for us here, and like Jesus, He can be our Best Friend too. He's always with us, helping us be more like Jesus. Let's thank God for sending us this wonderful helper and always listen to His gentle voice in our hearts.

Title: The Gift of the Holy Spirit

Once upon a time, in a bustling city filled with people from all walks of life, there lived a young girl named Sarah. Sarah had heard wondrous tales of a special helper promised by Jesus— the Holy Spirit. Eager to learn more, she embarked on a journey of discovery.

As Sarah delved into the teachings of Jesus, she learned of His promise to send the Holy Spirit to be with His disciples forever. Jesus assured them that this helper would guide them and remind them of His teachings long after He had ascended to heaven.

One day, as Sarah read about the events of Pentecost, she marveled at the miraculous arrival of the Holy Spirit. Like a rushing wind, the Spirit descended upon the disciples, filling them with joy and empowering them to speak in different languages. It was a moment of awe and wonder—a divine manifestation of God's presence among His people.

Sarah learned that the Holy Spirit not only helped the disciples pray but also bestowed upon them special gifts to serve others. Some were gifted with wisdom, others with healing, and still others with the ability to speak with tongues. Each gift was unique and valuable, enriching the lives of those around them.

As Sarah pondered these teachings, she realized that the Holy Spirit was not just a distant force but a constant companion, guiding her in her daily life. When she listened to His gentle voice in her heart, she found the strength to be kind, loving, and patient—a true reflection of Jesus' love.

And so, my dear friends, let us follow Sarah's example and open our hearts to the Holy Spirit. For He is the greatest gift sent by God, a divine presence that dwells within us, guiding us in the ways of love and righteousness. Let us heed His gentle whisper and walk in the footsteps of Jesus, spreading kindness and compassion wherever we go.
