

Lesson 33

Jesus is Coming Back!

One day, after Jesus rose from the dead, He went up into heaven. His friends, the Apostles, saw Him go. Two angels told them, "Jesus will come back, just like you saw Him go" (Acts 1:11).

Since then, people who love Jesus have been waiting for Him to come back again.

What Will Jesus Do When He Comes Again?

- Cleanse the Earth: When Jesus comes back, He will clean up all the bad things on Earth. He will make everything right again.
- Judge People: Jesus will look at how people have lived. He will reward the good people and punish the bad ones (Matthew 25:31–46).
- Millennium Begins: Jesus will rule on Earth for 1,000 years. It will be a time of happiness and peace.
- First Resurrection: People who have been good and died will come back to life. They will be very happy to see Jesus.
- Jesus Becomes King: Jesus will rule over everyone. He will be the King of heaven and Earth (Revelation 17:14).

How Will We Know When Jesus is Coming?

We don't know the exact time, but Jesus gave us some signs to watch for. When we see these things happening, we'll know His coming is near (Mark 13:28–29).

How Can We Be Ready?

We can be ready for Jesus by living like He taught us. We should be kind, love others, and follow what the prophet says. If we do these things, we'll be excited for Jesus to come back!

Why Should We Be Ready?

Being ready means being happy and not scared when Jesus comes. We don't need to worry about when exactly He'll come. We just need to be good and ready for Him!

Questions to Think About:

- What can we do to be ready for Jesus?
- How do you think the world will change when Jesus comes back?
- Why is it important to be kind and loving to others?

Additional Scriptures:

- Matthew 13:40–43

Title: "The Promise of His Return"

In a bustling town nestled between hills, there lived a young girl named Betsy. Betsy was no stranger to tales of wonder and miracles, for she had heard stories of Jesus' life and teachings since she was a child.

One evening, as the sun dipped below the horizon, Betsy's grandmother gathered the family around the hearth and began to recount the tale of Jesus' ascension into heaven. Betsy listened intently as her grandmother spoke of the angels' promise—that Jesus would return one day, just as He had departed.

As Betsy pondered the promise of Jesus' return, her heart swelled with anticipation. She imagined a world where love and kindness reigned supreme, where pain and sorrow vanished like mist in the morning sun.

"What will Jesus do when He comes again?" Betsy asked, her eyes wide with wonder.

Her grandmother smiled, her face illuminated by the flickering firelight. "He will cleanse the Earth of all that is wrong and unjust," she explained. "He will judge the hearts of people, rewarding those who have shown kindness and love."

Betsy's thoughts drifted to the prophesied millennium—a thousand years of peace and joy under Jesus' gentle rule. She envisioned a world where laughter echoed through the streets, and hearts overflowed with gratitude and goodwill.

"But how will we know when Jesus is coming?" Betsy wondered aloud.

Her grandmother gently squeezed her hand. "Jesus gave us signs to watch for," she replied. "When we see these signs unfolding, we will know His return is near."

Betsy nodded, her heart brimming with determination. "I want to be ready for Jesus," she declared.

Her grandmother's eyes twinkled with pride. "Being ready means living each day with love and kindness," she said. "It means following Jesus' teachings and cherishing the beauty of His creation."

As Betsy drifted off to sleep that night, her heart was filled with hope. She knew that no matter when Jesus returned, she would be ready—ready to greet Him with open arms and a heart overflowing with love.

For Betsy understood that being ready for Jesus meant living each day with kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith. And as she drifted into dreams filled with visions of Jesus' return, she whispered a prayer of gratitude, thankful for the promise of His everlasting love.
