

Lesson 36

Get Ready for Heaven

Hey there! Do you know how amazing Heaven is going to be? Let me tell you all about it!

Awesome Gifts in Heaven

Imagine this: we'll get to hang out with God and Jesus forever! And guess what? We'll even get to be like God (live forever) and learn super cool stuff!

How to Get Ready for Heaven

To get ready for Heaven, we need to believe in Jesus and do what He says. We should also get baptized and receive the Holy Ghost (John 3:5). And of course, we should be good, go to church, and help others, just like Jesus taught us (Matthew 22:37–39).

After Being Good

If we keep being good, we'll have life in Heaven. And just imagine the party we'll have when we're back with God, and He says, "Great job!" (Matthew 25:23).

Isn't that awesome? But wait, there's even more cool stuff in the Bible about Heaven! Here are just a few exciting things, check them out:

Revelation 21:6-7: God promises us all good things in Heaven.

Matthew 25:34: Jesus invites us to inherit His kingdom.

Ephesians 1: Talks about all the blessings we'll have in Heaven.

Matthew 18:1-5: Jesus says we need to be humble and kind like children to get into Heaven.

James 2:5: Those who love God will inherit His kingdom.

Luke 6:20: Jesus says the kingdom of God belongs to those who are poor in spirit.

John 14:1-3: Jesus promises to prepare a special place for us in Heaven.

So, my friend, let's keep being good, trusting and loving Jesus because Heaven is going to be the best place ever!

Title: "Rylee's Heavenly Adventure"

In the bustling town of Meadowbrook, there lived a spirited girl named Rylee. One sunny afternoon, while playing in her backyard, Rylee's mind wandered to thoughts of Heaven. She wondered what it would be like.

Curious, Rylee skipped over to her grandmother, who was tending to her garden. "Grandma, can you tell me about Heaven?" she asked, her eyes shining with curiosity.

With a warm smile, Grandma sat down next to Rylee and began, "Heaven is a place beyond our wildest dreams, Rylee. It's where we'll be with God and Jesus forever! And guess what? We'll even get to be like them and learn amazing things!"

Rylee's heart swelled with excitement. "How do we get ready for Heaven, Grandma?"

Grandma lovingly took Rylee's hand and replied, "To prepare for Heaven, we need to believe in Jesus and do what He tells us. We should be baptized and receive the Holy Spirit. And most importantly, we should be kind, go to church, and help others, just like Jesus taught us."

Rylee nodded eagerly, soaking in every word. "What happens after we're good, Grandma?"

"Then comes the most wonderful part," Grandma said, her eyes sparkling. "If we keep being good, we'll have eternal life in Heaven. Imagine the joyous celebration when we reunite with God, and He tells us, 'Well done, my faithful servant!'"

Rylee's face lit up with joy. "I can't wait for that day, Grandma!"

"But wait, there's more wonderful things about Heaven in the Bible," Grandma said, opening the Scriptures. Together, they read about God's promises of blessings, Jesus's invitation to inherit His kingdom, and the special place prepared for believers.

As they closed the Bible, Rylee felt a sense of peace wash over her. "Thank you, Grandma," she said, giving her a tight hug. "I'll keep being good and trusting Jesus because Heaven is going to be the best place ever!"

With hearts full of hope and excitement, Rylee and her grandma continued to cherish the promise of Heaven, knowing that their faith and goodness would one day lead them to eternal happiness in God's loving embrace.
